

What is total acid number (TAN)?

Total acid number (TAN) is the amount of acid present. Values higher than that of the new lubricant is an indication of oxidation or contamination.